CHANHASSEN DINNER THEATRES SUSPENDS OPERATIONS IN ACCORDANCE WITH STATE GUIDELINES

Chanhassen Dinner Theatres (CDT) under guidance from the Minnesota Department of Health and the Governor of Minnesota announced today that it will suspend all performances through Sunday, April 12. This includes all performances of Meredith Willson's The Music Man, Fireside Concert Series events, Stevie Ray's Comedy Cabaret and any special events.

Under an abundance of caution CDT will also temporarily close Brindisi's Pub and postpone wedding receptions and other events through April 12th. (With the exception of two small weddings on March 13 and 14.)

These decisions were made with the guidance from the Minnesota Department of Health and in accordance with the recommendations from the State of Minnesota in consideration of the COVID-19 pandemic. It is our desire to be compliant to ensure the health and safety of everyone who engages with Chanhassen Dinner Theatres.

We want our guests and ticket holders to know that they, along with our employees, are our priority. Suspended performances during the time period March 13 – April 12 include: The Music Man, Stevie Ray's Comedy Cabaret, and CDT Concert Series performances of: 100 Years of Sinatra; Pressing On: The Spiritual Songs of Bob Dylan; Dance Party Reunion: A Salute to Buddy Holly; The Music of Patsy Cline; Born to Run: A Bruce Springsteen Tribute; Thing Called Love: The Songs of Bonnie Raitt; I Dig Peter, Paul & Mary, and The Night Before Easter. Other canceled performances in addition include: Kickin' It Irish, and both performances of Tom Stolz's The Gospel According to St. Mark.

Chanhassen Dinner Theatres will continue to monitor the situation and reevaluate as more information about COVID-19 unfolds.

A small box office staff will be on duty. However, current ticketholders are encouraged to wait to receive communication from Chanhassen Dinner Theatres outlining options around exchanging tickets. We wish our audiences good health, peace, and sincerely appreciate everyone's patience and goodwill as this will be a difficult time for many.
